

Company Policies

Classification: Internal

Revision: 1.0

Author: Management Office

Document Retention

- Historical records must remain accessible.
- Original documents must not be discarded without authorisation.
- Previous versions should be retained when changes affect responsibilities or approvals.

Document Control

Management is responsible for final approval of internal documentation.